STORYLINE

in the graveyard. Firebrand must bust through Belth's claw to recover the Crest of Fire.

Before he may enter the Demon Realm, Firebrand must confront Somulo, the dragon gatekeeper.

ALL HELL IS ABOUT TO BREAK LOOSE.

Firebrand morphs into the Tidal Gargoyle. In an effort to shoot the HoloTurion snail.

Your spine will tingle as you enter the terrifying Ghoul Realm, where the evil Phalanx has hidden the magical, powerful stones of the Demon's Crest in his plot to form a destructive empire. Their return is up to you and Firebrand, a flame-spitting gargoyle who morphs into unique and powerful forms—each with startling attacks and powers. To restore peace, you must conquer Phalanx and his minions on seven treacherous levels by collecting weapons, gems and treasures. It's a hell of a way to have fun.

ProFile: ALEX SAVIUK

Alex Saviuk has been penciling WEB OF SPIDER-MAN since 1987; he sums up the experience by saying, "it's been a quick seven years... I've had a lot of fun!" Recently Alex left the WEB to crawl into an all-new monthly Spidey mag premiering this month, SPIDER-MAN ADVENTURES, which adapts stories from Spidey's hot new animated series! Here, Alex shares some Saviuk adventures!

Where and when were you born?

I was born in New York City on August 17, 1952.

How did you break into comics?

After attending the School of Visual Arts, where I studied with Will Eisner, the creator of the Spirit, I got my portfolio together and attended the Phil Seuling (comic) convention in '77. There, I met Sol Harrison, who was the President of DC Comics at the time, and he was impressed enough to offer me a job. I did a one-page mystery story for one of their now-defunct mystery comics. What was the first Spider-Man story you worked on? AMAZING SPIDER-MAN

#292 — the issue where Mary Jane accepts Peter Parker's proposal of marriage.

What can you tell us about SPIDER-MAN ADVENTURES?

SPIDER-MAN ADVENTURES features stories based on the animated series which begins in late October or early November. It has both the classic villains and the newer villains. In the first book, Spider-Man fights the Lizard. Issue two has the Scorpion... Venom will be appearing... the Shocker... it's a nice blend of old and new villains. Each issue tells a complete story.

Who are some of your artistic influences?

Well, the first comic I saw when I was a boy was a Superman by Curt Swan, so that's an influence. Same for Dick Sprang's Batman, Jack Kirby, John Romita Sr., Gil Kane, Ross Andru... all the artists from that time period. From my formative years, the classic art of the '50s — Frazetta, Al Williamson, Roy Krenkel, Wally Wood, Reed Crandall... I also like the illustrators from the early 1920's — Arthur Rackham, N.C. Wyeth. And modern artists like Maxfield Parrish and Lane Decker. I enjoy looking at that illustrative technique. I admire any artists who are enthusiastic about their work. They inspire me to do better.

What advice would you have for aspiring artists?

Draw, draw, draw anything you can see. Roll out of bed, draw your bedroom. Look out the window, draw cars, trees. You might as well learn to draw everything as early as possible. It doesn't hurt to get an art education. Also get a good general education. Art artist draws from the experience of the world around him. It's good to be well-rounded.

How many pages do you draw a day?

On a good day, I can draw two pages of full pencils, but that's a very long day! I usually work about eight hours a day, but that's usually split up throughout the day.

If you could only have one food to eat for the rest of your life, what would it be? Really good pizza! I've already tasted really bad pizza!

Do you have any hobbies?

I enjoy tennis, golf, bowling, playing with my kids — usually we play baseball or baseball — reading, movies, listening to music. There is a wide range of things to do away from the drawing board.

Who do you think should play Spider-Man in the movie?

Just about anybody who is athletic would fit the bill. Charlie Sheen is one name that has been mentioned, and I could go along with that.

Any closing comments?

I'd just like to mention that I'm married to my lovely wife, Jodi, and I have two children, Daniel and Erica. Also, I'd like to let the fans know that comic book artists do other things besides draw comics!

HYPE BOX

It begins with a simple mission in space — but by the time it's over, Nova will find himself rockin' into his greatest epic yet!

The action kicks off as Nova goes bullet-head to bullet-head with Nova 0.0 — an alternate Nova from another dimension, in issue #12 of the Human Rocket's mag! Writer Chris Marrinan said that the two Novas "kick up a little moon dust." In a story that takes them to Attilan, the home of the Inhumans on the planet, the exiled Royal Family of the Inhumans — including Black Bolt and Medusa — also put in an appearance, as do Nick Fury and the former New Warriors foe, the Star Thief.

Chris is taking a short break from the penciling chores of the book, as Dario Carrasco Jr. fills in for two issues, with Chris returning to double duty (writing and penciling) as of issue #14. Chris hinted that Nova 0.0 is a parallel universe version of someone who is very close to Nova in our dimension! Chris revealed that Nova 0.0's intentions are not evil — he is simply "trying to prepare Nova for the Deathstorm," an unstoppable force which destroyed Nova 0.0's Earth, and will pose a major threat to Nova in issues #13-16!

Dear Sirs,

I am writing in regard to your publication "BT's BEAVIS AND BUTT-HEAD" number 8, cover dated October 1994.

In this particular issue, the two stars are "radio-activated" (nearly electrocuted while destroying a radio) and become super heroes known as COOLMAN and DR. WEIRD. It was a fairly clever issue, with the running gag of running a TM (trademark) listing after the names every time they were used.

Unfortunately, there already is an existing character by the name of DR. WEIRD, and I do own the copyright on it.

We feel that an apology should be printed in the letters page, and that it would be appropriate to run an illustration of the real DR. WEIRD, with correct copyright info. Thank you.

Samy Sacks

UH? HEH-HEH
WE'RE LIKE SORRY ABOUT THAT, BUT,
YOU KNOW, HE'S REALLY NOT THAT WEIRD.

SO, HUH-HUH! YOU GUYS LIKE TO PLAY WITH YOUR BALLS ON THE FIELD...

Dear Beavis + Butt-head,

Hey! You guys are the most idiotic, brainless, anti-social twinks I've ever seen! My god, you set standards for every adolescent in America. That sucks.

Anyways, I guess you guys have your good sides, like when you helped Anderson with his yams, or when you learned about history.

I'm giving you guys a picture of what you'd look like if you were cool. Professor Beavis and BamButt, huh. Whiiiiit. Check out Roger. Whuuu!

Well, keep being butt munching fund leaves, because I guess it's making you rich.

Have fun, bum-wipe!
